

General Privacy Statement

Christakis Pediatrics is sensitive to protecting the privacy of our website visitors. The purpose of this Privacy Statement is to let you know how Christakis Pediatrics handles information received from you through this website, as well as inform you of the risks involved when you communicate or provide information by way of the internet. Keep in mind that changes are periodically made to this Privacy Statement without notice and it is your responsibility to review the statement when you use this website. By continuing to use this site, you consent to any changes to our policy or terms of use.

During your visit to the Christakis Pediatrics website bocachild.com, remember that the medical and health information presented is intended to be general in nature, and should not be viewed as a substitute for professional advice. Please consult with a healthcare professional for all matters relating to personal medical and health care issues.

Health and Medical Information

Certain health and medical information about you is protected under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (“HIPAA”) and applicable state law. This information may be provided by you online or offline, or may be collected by us from other methods such as through a health care provider. Christakis Pediatrics protects covered health and medical information as required by HIPAA and applicable state law. Similarly, Christakis Pediatrics may use covered health and medical information as permitted by HIPAA and applicable state law.

To read more about Christakis Pediatrics privacy practices regarding health and medical information under HIPAA, please review our HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices here. In the event of any conflict between Christakis Pediatrics HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices and this Website Privacy Statement, the terms of our HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices shall control.

Security/Confidentiality

No transmission of data over the internet or any wireless network can be guaranteed to be 100 percent secure. Christakis Pediatrics will, however, use a number of physical security methods (such as locks and alarm systems); electronic security methods (passwords and encryption methods); and procedural methods (rules regarding the handling and use of information) to protect the security and integrity of information submitted through this website.

Information Collection and Storage

Personally Identifiable Information: Christakis Pediatrics does not collect information that personally identifies you unless you choose to provide it to Christakis Pediatrics (for example, web pages that allow you to contact us). The personal information you submit is shared only with those people at Christakis Pediatrics who need this information to respond to your question or request, and as otherwise permitted by law to allow Christakis Pediatrics to operate our business or to comply with applicable laws.

As used in this Privacy Statement, personal information does not include information protected under HIPAA or applicable state laws, which is protected as described in the section “Health and Medical Information” above.

Non-Personally Identifiable Information: Christakis Pediatrics collects information that does not personally identify you for various purposes (for example, website usage, traffic patterns, site performance and related statistics based on your visits to our website).

Christakis Pediatrics collects some of this information using persistent “cookies” to recognize a repeat visitor and gather general information about how the site is viewed. Christakis Pediatrics also collects and logs the IP address of each visitor to gather aggregate data on visitors to our site. Keep in mind that neither cookies nor IP addresses are used to collect any personal information from you.

Email

Most email does not provide a completely secure and confidential means of communication. It is possible that your email could be viewed inappropriately by another Internet user. If you choose to provide us with your email, any misaddressing may result in others intercepting, altering, forwarding or using the information without authorization. If you wish to keep your information completely private, you should not use email.

At times, a representative from Christakis Pediatrics website may wish to deliver information to you via email. In addition, Christakis Pediatrics may occasionally distribute news and announcements via email. Please note, Christakis Pediatrics does not sell, trade, or otherwise share our email lists with others. You may remove your name from any list at any time.

- If you receive email at work, your employer may have the right to save and read your email; similarly, your Internet Service Provider may have the right to save and read your email.
- If you share your email account, others may view your emails.
- Email can be used unknowingly to spread computer viruses.
